No freeze, but firms cautious on hiring

"Companies are looking out for newer talents passively, they are engaging with the candidates by offering them freelance opportunities to work on some projects or interviewing them and building their talent pipeline. Companies that are seeing good bottomlines, like online solutions and technology providers, are honouring their previously-made offers and are even hiring new talent to meet their requirements," Gupta said.

Kamal Karanth, co-founder of Xpheno, said June had seen some marquee enterprises revoking fresher offers and postponing hiring plans for freshers. "Continued trimming of workforce by local enterprises clubbed with challenging situations for expatriates, has impacted the pace and volume of overall hiring," he said.

Full-time opportunities dropped by 18% in June over those in May. Xpheno's report for April and May had reflected a general upward movement in the opportunities for internships and part timers. "There has been a reversal on this front in June, with a little over 40% drop in the numbers," Karanth said.

Companies that FE spoke to said all the offers made prior to Covid-19 or even during the pandemic are being honoured.

However, right now, while some firms continue to recruit across all levels, others are being selective and some have held back. Supratik Bhattacharya, chief talent officer, RPG Group, told FE the group continues to hire talent with the longer-term perspective for supplementing and expanding capabilities in new markets and functions. "We are keen on hiring high-quality, digital and technology talent across levels in our group companies," he said. While the company is taking new hires on board as planned, it has hired seven CXOs across group companies in addition to 58 graduates from Tier-1 business schools.

According to HR consultants, lateral hiring, for now, is more about strategising and planning and less about actual hiring. To be sure, on a recent earnings call, Cognizant CFO Karen McLoughlin said the company is freezing lateral hiring across all functions. However, it will continue to move forward with sales hiring plan and other key positions and honour all outstanding accepted offers. "Additionally, we have confirmed that we will honour the more than 20,000 campus offers we have made," McLoughlin said.

Tata Steel has also put its hiring plans on hold, though it is honouring all commitments made before or during the pandemic. TV Narendran, CEO and MD, Tata Steel, said the company normally takes a fresh batch of graduates every year. "We have honoured those commitments, they have been inducted into Tata Steel virtually," he said.

"We are not hiring just now as we are looking at how to make more productive use of the resources that we already have," Narendran added.

After recovering to half of normal, states' tax revenue plateaus

"This sharp rise in borrowings reflects the shock to the revenues of the state governments, given the decline in the consumption of several non-essential goods and services that is expected to have taken place during the lockdown period," rating agency IcrA noted.

The Centre has tried to mitigate the state governments' pain from an unmanageable revenue decline in April-May by generously transferring almost double the gross amount it collected during the period to the states as their share of central taxes. However, this has proven to be unsustainable; June tax transfers to states are understood to be 9% less than the monthly transfer of ₹46,083 crore in the April-May period, at around ₹42,000 crore.

A senior official from the UP government told FE that the state collected ₹8,849 crore or 61% of the budgeted monthly OTR target of ₹14,447 crore in June compared with just about ₹5,597 crore or 41% of the target collected in May (15% April). The quarterly achievement of the state's OTR was about 38% of the target in Q1FY21.

Odisha, which garnered about 20% of monthly revenue targeted for April and 25% of the target in May, collected around 50% in June, the state's finance secretary, Ashok Meena, said. However, the overall own revenue of the state was over 100% in the June quarter of this fiscal compared with the year-ago quarter, thanks to a one-time windfall from mining auctions, Meena said. The own revenues of the state in Q1FY21 were 74% of the receipts in the year-ago quarter. "Unless the economy returns to full normalcy, the own tax revenue position will continue to be bad," Meena said.

The Centre has tried to mitigate the state governments' pain from an unmanageable revenue decline in April-May by generously transferring almost double the gross amount it collected during the period to the states as their share of central taxes

Himachal Pradesh, which reported 10% of targeted tax revenue collections in April, achieved over 50% in June, state finance secretary Prabodh Saxena said, but he added VAT and excise revenues were still subdued. The Q1FY21 revenues of the state were around 50% of the collections achieved in the corresponding quarter last year.

"First seven days of July have been better, but it needs to be seen if this will be sustained or was a one-time pent up demand release," Saxena said. Car and two-wheeler sales have increased as people are now not prepared to use public transport, he said. Himachal Pradesh, which has not tapped the market for funds so far in this fiscal, plans to accelerate borrowings in the coming months if the GST compensation arrears are not released.

Despite the recent release of ₹36,500 crore by the Centre from the integrated GST pool, the state governments will require to be paid a whopping ₹80,000 crore more as compensation for their state goods and service tax (S-GST) shortfall in the March-May period, going by the formula of 14% assured annual revenue growth.
